Public Meetings Scheduled for July on Fulton County Water and Wastewater Capital Improvement Projects

Public input invited on growth and service requirements

The Water Services Division of the Fulton County Department of Public Works is hosting five public meetings beginning on July 13, 2009, to obtain citizen input on the annual update of the Water and Wastewater Capital Improvement Projects plan. Residents of municipalities served by Fulton County's water and wastewater services are encouraged to attend.

The annual update of the plan is conducted to ensure that current service needs are being met. The proposed plan covers repair and replacement of major equipment systems for wastewater facilities and infrastructure and capacity improvements of water infrastructure to meet growth and demand requirements.

The meetings will be held on the following dates:
